

Coventry City of Culture Trust Apprentice Producer x3

Role: Apprentice Producer
Reports to Producing Team

Salary : £17,000 gross pro-rata per annum (based on 30 hours per week).
Fixed term contract until April 2022.

Context

Coventry City of Culture Trust was set up in 2015 to bid to be UK City of Culture in 2021. Now that we have been successful in securing the prestigious title, we are recruiting the team ready to deliver an ambitious UK City of Culture year in 2021/22 and legacy.

We are a diverse, modern city which is re-imagining the role culture can play in bringing people together. Coventry is a city of welcome, a city of activists and pioneers, a city of peace and reconciliation, a city of innovation and invention, a City of Culture.

The Trust is committed to:

- Welcoming 2.5m additional visitors to Coventry in 2021/22
- 80% of the city's residents experiencing at least three events in 2021/22
- Increasing audience attendance from under-represented communities by 20%
- Activating more than 16,000 volunteers and participants
- Making long-lasting, tangible social change in Coventry
- Starting a wave of cultural investment across the region

In July 2020, we announced that Coventry's City of Culture programme will start in May 2021 and run for 12 months, allowing us to keep our promise to the city and region.

This is your opportunity to join a group of apprentices and be part of telling the story of a city that moves.

Job Description

The Trust seeks to appoint three Apprentice Producers, working in either our Caring City, Dynamic City or Collaborative City teams, to assist in the planning delivery and review of the 2021 programme; including projects, programmes and events (small and large scale) as part of City of Culture 2021.

Spotlight on Programme Areas

Creative Apprentice Producer One - Caring City

Are you passionate about your city, social change, working with communities, asking BIG meaningful questions, and using creativity to find a solution? Within the Caring City team, you will support key areas in producing such as event planning, artist liaison, supporting in shaping and programming events. You will explore key themes such as mental health, safety, social inclusion, and homelessness.

Creative Apprentice Producer Two - Youthful City

Youthfulness is an attitude, a gathering of mindsets, a synergy of creative and dynamic ideas to celebrate the people in our cities. You will be part of a cultural and creative skills exchange between Coventry and four international cities; Nairobi, Bogota, Detroit, and Beirut, culminating in the creation of four new artworks and an event which brings together the ideas and innovations from the exchanges into a 3-day Global Youth Summit in Coventry.

Creative Apprentice Producer Three - Collaborative City

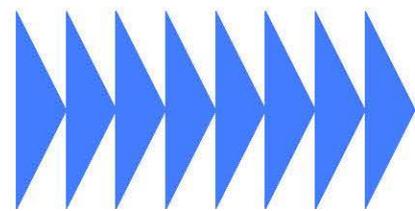

Creativity and culture are everywhere, all the time, in every community and on every street. Are you passionate about working with and empowering the citizens and communities of Coventry? Working as part of the Collaborative cities Team you will be co-creating projects with schools, libraries, community centres, family hubs, faith groups and local businesses to produce a locally relevant but globally connected programme. Coventry's communities will be the ideas engine, the makers, the performers, the storytellers, and the change makers.

Person Specification

- Currently a resident of Coventry or Warwickshire
- A keen interest in playing a part in Coventry's City of Culture 2021
- Demonstrable interest in gaining knowledge, skills, and experience in the role

Apprenticeship standard - Event Assistant

Expected Apprenticeship Duration: 18 months.

General

We aim to reflect all the city's communities in our workforce and as such candidates from currently under-represented groups, including those with disabilities, are especially encouraged to apply.

Training and talent development within the Trust team and within the wider sector is central to our approach. All postholders are expected to participate in training and development activity (including the achievement of the requirements of an apprenticeship standard).

This list of responsibilities is not exhaustive and team members will be required to perform duties outside of this as operationally required.

Process

Please try to attend our optional informal online briefing session on Thursday 10 September. You can register your interest to attend by following this link: coventry-apprentices.eventbrite.co.uk.

To formally apply, please complete the application form that can be found on our website: coventry2021.co.uk/apprentices.

You may prefer to send a video recording that addresses all of the questions found on the application form.

Applications (written or video) should be addressed to Ruth Richardson, Head of Team Development and emailed to recruitment@coventry2021.co.uk.

For large files, please send via WeTransfer and include your name and contact number in the message.

Eligible applicants will be invited to attend an interview / development day with representatives of the City of Culture Trust. Following government guidelines, interviews will likely be held via video conferencing software.

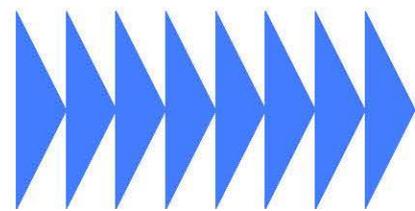

You will then be notified if you have been offered an apprenticeship opportunity at the Trust.

Please note: During this time you will be contacted by our training provider who will check your eligibility for the apprenticeship and ask you to complete a short Maths and English assessment to help us make sure you get the support you need.

Coventry City of Culture Trust is committed to equal opportunities and will treat all applications fairly on the basis of written or video submissions, please complete the anonymous equal opportunities google form available at www.coventry2021.co.uk/jobs.
