

Coventry City of Culture Trust
HR Coordinator
Reports to Head of Team Development

Role: HR Coordinator
Report to Head of Team Development

Salary : Up to £25,000 per annum dependent on experience

Context

Coventry City of Culture Trust was set up in 2015 to bid to be UK City of Culture in 2021. Now that we have been successful in securing the prestigious title, we are recruiting the team ready to deliver an amazing build-up programme, an ambitious UK City of Culture year in 2021 and legacy.

We are a diverse, modern city which is re-imagining the role culture can play in bringing people together.

Coventry is a city of welcome, a city of activists and pioneers, a city of peace and reconciliation, a city of innovation and invention, a City of Culture.

By inspiring leading artists to work with us, supporting a new generation of artists and makers, nurturing the creativity of young people, welcoming our communities to collaborate, partnering with local schools and universities, supporting high profile tourism campaigns and removing barriers to attendance, we, along with our city partners, encourage everyone to participate in the creative life of their City and region. The Trust is committed to:

- Welcoming 2.5m additional visitors to Coventry in 2021
- Making long-lasting social change in Coventry
- 80% of the city's residents experiencing at least three events in 2021
- Increasing audience attendance from under-represented communities by 20%
- Activating more than 16,000 volunteers and participants
- Starting a wave of cultural investment across the region.

Job Description

The Trust is looking to appoint a HR Coordinator to support our Head of Team Development with the HR processes of the Trust. The postholder will help to maintain the Trust's HR systems, policies and procedures. The person appointed must be someone who values tact, discretion, sensitivity and confidentiality.

The Role

- Providing HR related support to the Head of Team Development and key colleagues, in addition to supporting the work of the wider team
- Providing HR related support and coordination in relation to recruitment, induction, correspondence with colleagues, training and development activity, referral processes, monitoring and evaluation and minute taking
- Maintaining the Trust's HR Toolkit, including updating personnel information and sending requests as required to ensure compliance with HR related policies and procedures
- Liaising with internal colleagues and external partners including HR consultants, as required
- General administration as required

- To ensure that the health and wellbeing of colleagues, partners and participants are always a key consideration of your work
- To work flexibly as a member of the Coventry 2021 team and contribute to delivering other elements of the team's work programme as required
- Actively engage with the organisation's vision and policies regarding equal opportunities and diversity, artistic ambition, participation and engagement, health and safety, evaluation and monitoring
- To be aware of, and undertake to comply with the Trust's GDPR, Health and Safety and Diversity and Equality Policies

Personal Specification

- Understanding of and experience working with HR related legislation, policies and procedures
- Experience of working with online HR management systems / toolkits
- Experience of helping others to adhere to good practice in relation to HR processes – including employers and employees
- Excellent communication, administration, written and digital skills
- A discreet, trustworthy individual with the ability to handle sensitive and difficult situations with tact, diplomacy and integrity
- A personal and professional interest in Arts, Culture and Heritage
- Excellent organisational and time-management skills and ability to prioritise a diverse workload
- Attributes of diplomacy, confidentiality, trust and respect for colleagues and partners
- To be based in, or be willing to move to within, commuting distance of Coventry

General

We aim to reflect all the city's communities in our workforce and as such candidates from currently under-represented groups, including those with disabilities, are especially encouraged to apply.

Training and talent development within the Trust team and within the wider sector is central to our approach. All postholders are expected to participate in training and development activity and to contribute time and expertise to supporting our training programmes on site and occasionally off site.

This list of responsibilities is not exhaustive and team members will be required to perform duties outside of this as operationally required.

Process

Please submit up to a 2-page letter plus an up to date CV addressing your interest and suitability for the post with reference to the personal specifications.

Coventry City of Culture Trust is committed to equal opportunities and will treat all applications fairly on the basis of written submissions, please complete the anonymous equal opportunities google form available at www.coventry2021.co.uk/jobs.
